MAJOR IN SECOND-LANGUAGE TEACHING - TEACHING ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

No need to look elsewhere! Offered jointly by the Faculty of Education and the Faculty of Arts, through the Official Languages and Bilingualism Institute, these multidisciplinary undergraduate programs are the only ones of their kind in Canada. Courses cover the theories of language acquisition, as well as second language learning and teaching and explore the interrelationships between language, culture and society. What’s more, upon graduation, if you want to work as a second language teacher and you meet the admission requirements of the Faculty of Education, a limited number of places are reserved for you in our Teacher Education (BEd) program. Several graduate program options are also available.

This program is offered in English and in French.

Program Requirements

The table below includes only the discipline-specific courses. Please refer to the Academic Regulations (http://web5.uottawa.ca/admingov/regulations.html) for information on the Honours bachelor’s with double major and the Honours bachelor’s with major and minor.

Specific admission requirement: an English proficiency test is required.

Program for anglophone students.

French immersion is available when taken as part of an honours degree.

Students admitted in second language teaching will be given priority in registration for second language teaching (DLS) courses.

Note(s)

1 This course must be taken in English. All assignments and examinations must be presented or written in English.
