MASTER OF EDUCATION (HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION)

With approximately 1,600 students and 150 full-time and part-time professors, the Faculty of Education at the University of Ottawa stands out as an enriching environment in which professors, students and community partners contribute to our innovative graduate programs.

Regardless of whether you are looking to become an expert educator, a school/board administrator, a research leader or a program evaluator, our professors will give you the means to have a positive impact on the community and graduate qualifications to advance and enrich your careers.

To acquire the tools for your professional success, among its unique programs, the faculty offers you:

- The Graduate Diploma (Dipl);
- The Graduate Diploma (Dipl); fully online
- The Master of Education (M.Ed.) with course-based option;
- The Master of Education (M.Ed.) with research paper option;
- The Master of Education (M.Ed.) fully online;
- The Master of Arts in Education (M.A.);
- The Doctor of Philosophy in Education (Ph.D.).

The faculty’s location in the heart of Ottawa offers you an exceptional range of programs in both official languages, which enables you to fully enjoy all the benefits of Canada’s capital.

The programs are offered in English and French and are governed by the academic regulations (http://www.grad.uottawa.ca/Default.aspx?tabid=1807/) in effect for graduate studies.

Master of Education (M.Ed.)

The Master of Education (M.Ed.), coursework option, is a course-based program designed to deepen your knowledge of education, improve your professional practice and expand your career choices.

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) with major-research paper (MRP) option combines courses and research to specialize in a field and acquire research skills, eventually giving you access to the Ph.D.

All candidates for the Master of Education degree (M.Ed.) must select one of the following concentrations as a focus for their studies:

- Counselling psychology
- Health professions education
- Leadership, evaluation, curriculum and policy studies
- Second Language Education
- Societies, cultures and languages
- Studies in teaching and learning

For further information on our masters’ programs, please refer to the Faculty of Education website (https://education.uottawa.ca/en/programs/graduate-studies/masters/).

Research
Research Fields & Facilities
Located in the heart of Canada’s capital and recognized as a national and international leader in research in Education and Counseling Psychology, the Faculty of Education has a number of facilities available for research (https://education.uottawa.ca/en/research/):

- 6 Research Chairs (https://education.uottawa.ca/en/research/chair/) with researchers working on diverse and exciting projects, such as school democratization, anxiety treatment, children’s mental health, or the development of digital literacy among students;
- 5 Research Laboratories (https://education.uottawa.ca/en/research/labs/) devoted to multiple projects, such as virtual learning, research in psychotherapy or learning mathematics, to name a few;
- 7 Education Research Units (https://education.uottawa.ca/en/research/erus/), addressing major educational issues that have regional, national or international implications.

Research at the Faculty of Education
Founded in 1967, the Faculty of Education at the University of Ottawa is the official Vendor of Record for the Ministry of Education of Ontario and for the Conseil des écoles publiques de l’Est de l’Ontario (CEPEO). Moreover, our faculty receives one of the highest levels of research funding of all faculties of education in Canada.

For over 30 years, graduate students have organized the Jean-Paul Dionne Symposium – an event that highlights and promotes the research of our students and professors.

The Faculty of Education also publishes annually two issues of our open access online journal, the Education Review, and organizes two conferences annually as part of our Excellence in Education Series.

Our professors (https://education.uottawa.ca/en/about/faculty/) are engaged in innovative research projects and teaching and evaluation approaches at the cutting edge of their fields.

For more information, refer to the list of faculty members and their research fields on Uniweb.

IMPORTANT: Candidates and students looking for professors to supervise their thesis or research project can also consult the website of the faculty or department (https://www.uottawa.ca/graduate-studies/students/academic-unit-contact-information/) of their program of choice. Uniweb does not list all professors authorized to supervise research projects at the University of Ottawa.
