BACHELOR OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

In the three-year Social Sciences Bachelor's program, students cover the fundamentals of the social sciences while studying three specific areas of their choice, including at least two from the following areas of study: anthropology, criminology, economics, political science, psychology, public administration, sociology, women's studies. In addition, the Bachelor's of Social Sciences is an excellent springboard to studies in law or education.

This program is offered in English and in French.

Program Requirements

A maximum of 36 course units can be taken at the 1000 level.

ENG 1100  Workshop in Essay Writing  3 Units

3 course units from:

ENG 1120  Literature and Composition I: Prose Fiction  3 Units
ENG 1121  Literature and Composition II: Drama and Poetry

SCS 1150  Introduction to Studying the Social Sciences  3 Units
SCS 1160  History of Ideas in Social Sciences  3 Units
SCS 2150  Introduction to Methodology in the Social Sciences  3 Units

Three groups of 18 course units including at least two groups in the following list of Social Sciences programs: Anthropology (ANT), Criminology (CRM), Economics (ECO), Women's Studies (FEM), Public Administration (PAP), Political Science (POL), Psychology (PSY), Sociology (SOC)  54 Units

21 elective course units  21 Units

Total:  90 Units

Note(s)

1 A minimum of 15 course units at the 3000 or 4000 level among the three groups.