

SCIENCE POLICY OPTION

The University of Ottawa is privileged to be in the heart of the nation's capital, where science policy is made. The Science Policy option is a nine-unit (three course) option that can be incorporated into your Honours BSc program. It provides an introduction to public administration and public policy analysis. The fourth year capstone course deals with the importance of science in evidence-based decision making and sound policy making.

Program requirements

The table below includes only option-specific courses. Please refer to the Academic Regulations for information on the possible combinations available within the Faculty of Science.

Compulsory Courses

PAP 1301	Introduction to Public Administration	3 Units
PAP 2300	Introduction to Public Policy Analysis	3 Units
SCI 4100	Special Topics in Science, Society and Policy	3 Units
Total:		9 Units